

Extension of Online Classes after May 10

Dear International Students

Last time we announced the cancellation of the face-to-face classes up to 7 May.

However, due to the spread of COVID-19, we extend the same countermeasure until May 14 at the Kofu Campus. This is not applicable to the School of Medicine.

We shall update the conditions based on the infection status later.

International Planning Division